Summary of October 5, 2004 Meeting

Present: Robert Ortega, Scott Page, James McNally, John Matlock, Simboonath Singh

The meeting began with introductions. The committee discussed the possibility of getting data from the Provost's office on the status of minority recruitment and retention of faculty. The committee also discussed the University's planned National Center for Institutional Diversity.

In light of the US Supreme Court Decisions the committee decided to ask someone from the University's Legal Council to address the committee about acceptable admissions practices.
