

GENERAL CHARGE FOR STANDING SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Standing committees are established by Senate Assembly as mandated in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, standing committees advise and consult with the vice presidents of the university on matters within the areas of their respective responsibilities. Senate Assembly standing committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure. Senate Assembly standing committees shall strive to provide advice and consultation to their respective vice presidents in a timely fashion so that faculty perspectives are considered during the decision-making process.

Academic Affairs Advisory Committee (AAAC)

Advisory to: Laurie K. McCauley, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

Committee Chair: Emmanuelle Marquis, College of Engineering

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023 – 2024

1. Develop educational guidance for students aimed toward supporting an academic environment in which faculty may be presenting and discussing content that students find uncomfortable.
2. Develop best administrative practices for faculty responses to student objections to course content, with consideration made regarding University procedures and resources that tend to support or challenge faculty academic freedom.
3. In collaboration with SACUA, continue pursuing such further work related to the AAAC 2022-2023 recommendations regarding SPG reviews and revisions related to disability and illnesses, with consideration of the following SPGs:
 - a. 201.12 Discipline
 - b. 201.15 Fitness for Duty
 - c. 201.15-01 Temporary Removal of Faculty for Lack of Fitness for Duty
 - d. 201.11-1 Sick Leave Plan—Academic Appointments
4. Assess current practices regarding disability support for faculty and staff, and provide recommendations regarding improvement.
5. Brainstorm on a potential symposium or invited speaker event focused on research around faculty burnout, including defining “burnout,” identifying root causes, and policies and procedures to prevent burnout—with planning, logistical, and financial assistance from the Faculty Senate Office.
6. Consider with the Provost any further issues or topics brought forward by the AAAC committee members or the Provost for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.

GENERAL CHARGE FOR SPECIAL SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Special committees are established by Senate Assembly as authorized in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, special committees assist Senate Assembly with its work. Senate Assembly special committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure.

Administrative Evaluation Committee (AEC)

Committee Chair: Ivo Dinov

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023 – 2024

1. Review the use of AI in the prior year's survey of administrators, and develop recommendations regarding the continued use of AI to summarize survey results.
2. Develop a document clearly describing to the Faculty Senate members a mechanism put in place to ensure the following:
 - a. anonymity of the answers to the quantitative questions of the annual AEC survey;
 - b. anonymity of the free form advice to the administrators of the survey;
 - c. confidentiality of the remarks to the administrators included in the survey.
3. Consider further improvements to the survey, such as the following:
 - a. Simplify both processes of survey completion (data input by faculty) and survey interpretation (result consumption by academic administrators)
 - b. Continuing the efforts with ITS of incorporating all Department Chairs without Regental approval into the list of evaluated administrators.
 - c. Work with ITS to improve the admin-user-interface, which is currently very clunky and awkward to navigate (it's impossible to read, text is presented as low-res rasterized images, the overall look-and-feel of the input and output of AEC survey can be significantly improved.
 - d. Enhancing HR data for the 2024 survey for regional campuses:
 - i. HR data from Flint could be expanded to include all governing faculty at Flint as respondents.
 - ii. At Dearborn, it was recommended that units be consulted, if possible, in gathering HR data since the definition of governing faculty varies by unit.

GENERAL CHARGE FOR STANDING SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Standing committees are established by Senate Assembly as mandated in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, standing committees advise and consult with the vice presidents of the university on matters within the areas of their respective responsibilities. Senate Assembly standing committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure. Senate Assembly standing committees shall strive to provide advice and consultation to their respective vice presidents in a timely fashion so that faculty perspectives are considered during the decision-making process.

Communications Advisory Committee (CAC)

Advisory to: Richie C. Hunter, Vice President for Communications

Committee Chair: Cliff Lampe, School of Information

SPECIFIC CHARGE – 2023 – 2024

1. Develop some best practices for streamlining communication on campus and reducing email clutter.
2. Explore and offer recommendations, if needed, regarding how the University considers storytelling with the public in order to promote faculty research and greater community engagement.
3. Consider whether to have an event to provide information and advice about how faculty can effectively communicate with the media about their research—with the logistical assistance of the Faculty Senate Office.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by CAC members or the Vice President for Communications for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.

GENERAL CHARGE FOR SPECIAL SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Special committees are established by Senate Assembly as authorized in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, special committees assist Senate Assembly with its work. Senate Assembly special committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure.

Committee on Anti-Racism (CAR)

Committee Chair: Mark Allison, UM-Flint, College of Innovation and Technology

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023 – 2024

1. In collaboration with the ECRT and the Faculty Senate Office, form and train a network of faculty peers to offer informal support for other faculty facing challenges due to race, caste, or ethnicity.
2. Review current challenges to teaching about race and America's history of systematic racism, and offer recommendations to help support U-M faculty who do so.
3. In collaboration with the ECRT and a planning committee to be created by SACUA, offer feedback on plans for an annual report on racial misconduct targeted for ECRT release in the winter term.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by CAR committee members for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.

Committee on the Economic and Social Well-Being of the Faculty (CESWF)

Committee Chair: Yasmina Laouar, Medical School

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023 – 2024

1. Review the current UM Standard Practice Guide on protection from retaliation and develop recommendations for policies designed to:
 - 1.1 Protect faculty autonomy in the classroom, including curricula, teaching methods, and grading, in an effort to avoid student retaliation seeking punitive actions from administration.
 - 1.2 Protect faculty from retaliation from other faculty or administrators.
2. Review the current conditions and drivers that may lead to faculty burnout and develop recommendations for how to address those conditions.
3. Explore whether to have an event in the winter term, supported with the planning, logistical, and financial assistance of the Faculty Senate Office, that would promote an open dialogue amongst faculty to advocate for academic freedom.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by the CESWF committee members for discussion over the course of the year. Additionally, consider any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report, while coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee.

GENERAL CHARGE FOR SPECIAL SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Committee for Fairness, Equity, and Inclusion (CFEI)

Committee Chair: Caitlin Finlayson, UM-Dearborn, College of Arts, Sciences, and Letters

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023-2024

1. Revisit the existing criteria for appointment and promotion within the various tracks, while considering whether current DEI efforts should be better incorporated.
2. Continue to engage with Ann Arbor, Flint, and Dearborn campus officials, focusing on continuing DEI efforts and planning, recognizing the differing DEI challenges on each campus, and developing recommendations for improvement. Pinpoint innovative and successful practices, policies, or approaches on individual campuses that might be shared across the system.
3. Renew efforts to pursue a tri-campus fellowship proposal, which would support faculty teaching and/or research in a department or unit on one of the other two campuses.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by CFEI committee members for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.

GENERAL CHARGE FOR SPECIAL SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

General Counsel's Advisory Committee (GCAC)

Advisory to: Timothy Lynch, Vice President and General Counsel

Committee Chair: Rogério Pinto, School of Social Work

SPECIFIC CHARGE – 2023 – 2024

1. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by the GCAC committee members and/or the General Counsel for discussion over the course of the year
2. Continue the committee's discussions on policies and practices for protecting academic freedom, with consideration of the following:
 - a. U-M's past and current efforts
 - b. policies from other institutions
 - c. how accreditation may be employed to support academic freedom
3. Explore how the intersection of ethics, law, and retaliation concerns at the University impact its culture, with the goal of developing recommendations for possible further action by the Office of the General Counsel and/or SACUA and the Faculty Senate.

GENERAL CHARGE FOR STANDING SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Standing committees are established by Senate Assembly as mandated in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. Senate Assembly standing committees shall strive to provide advice and consultation to their respective vice presidents in a timely fashion so that faculty perspectives are considered during the decision-making process.

Government Relations Advisory Committee (GRAC)

Advisory to: Chris Kolb, Vice President for Government Relations

Committee Chair:

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023 – 2024

1. Review recent examples of government investigations of faculty that undermine academic freedom (such as recent efforts to identify and prosecute alleged Chinese spies) and offer recommendations for action by the Office of Government Relations.
2. Work with VP Kolb to identify specific areas needing faculty engagement with government relations issues, and identify, contact, and solicit the assistance of faculty members with expertise and connections with the potential to impact policy making.
3. Examine how UM can work directly with Ann Arbor city government officials to develop plans for creating and maintaining affordable housing for graduate students.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by GRAC committee members or the Vice President for Government Relations for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.

Student Relations Advisory Committee (SRAC)

Advisory to: Martino Harmon, PhD, Vice President for Student Life

Committee Chair: Jessica Pasquale, Law School Library

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023 – 2024

1. Investigate existing initiatives across campus for faculty to engage with students outside the classroom and develop recommendations for increasing faculty participation in such initiatives.
2. Solicit feedback on the perception of a "healthy campus social climate" from students and units, programs, and offices already working in this area, and develop recommendations to improve cross-campus coordination and collaboration to increase awareness and participation in existing and new initiatives.
3. Receive and review feedback about the accommodation process that the Faculty Senate Office will be soliciting from the Faculty Senate membership. Consolidate that feedback to share with the leadership of Student Accessibility and Accommodations Services (SAAS) and the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) office. Meet with SAAS and SSD leadership to discuss specific faculty concerns, and then report back to SACUA any relevant information obtained or recommendations developed.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by SRAC committee members or the Vice President for Student Life for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.
