

GENERAL CHARGE FOR STANDING SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Standing committees are established by Senate Assembly as mandated in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, standing committees advise and consult with the vice presidents of the university on matters within the areas of their respective responsibilities. Senate Assembly standing committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure. Senate Assembly standing committees shall strive to provide advice and consultation to their respective vice presidents in a timely fashion so that faculty perspectives are considered during the decision-making process.

Financial Affairs Advisory Committee (FAAC)

Advisory to: Geoffrey Chatas, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Committee Chair: James Gulvas, University Library

SPECIFIC CHARGE – 2023 – 2024

1. Discuss the Campus Plan 2050 initiative and offer feedback.
2. Survey how the construction, operation, and maintenance of the University's buildings continue to provide support to members of the U-M community who are disabled.
3. Review the services of the University's Shared Services Center, and provide feedback about how to continue easing administrative burdens on faculty.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by FAAC committee members or the Executive Vice President Chatas for discussion over the course of the year. While coordinating with the Faculty Senate Office to help avoid duplicating work that SACUA has now referred to itself or to another committee, the committee may also continue discussing any issues or topics raised in the committee's most recent annual committee report.
