

GENERAL CHARGE FOR SPECIAL SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Special committees are established by the Senate Assembly as authorized in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, special committees assist Senate Assembly with its work. Senate Assembly special committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure.

Committee on Oversight of Administrative Action (COAA)

Committee Chair: Wayne C. Petty, School of Music, Theatre & Dance

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2023- 2024

1. Study and evaluate the U-M administration's compliance with university policies and procedures governing the conferral of tenure.
2. Work with the Faculty Senate, in coordination with the Faculty Senate Office, toward implementing the recommendations in the 2023–24 COAA report for revising the existing faculty grievance system.
3. Continue the development begun in 2023–24 of best practices for bylaws among the units and departments of the university.
4. Consider emergent issues or topics brought forward by COAA committee members for discussion over the course of the year.

Approved by the Senate Assembly on September 23, 2024
