

GENERAL CHARGE FOR STANDING SENATE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEES

Standing committees are established by Senate Assembly as mandated in Section 4.06 of the Regents' Bylaws. In collaboration with the Faculty Senate Office and SACUA, standing committees advise and consult with the vice presidents of the university on matters within the areas of their respective responsibilities. Senate Assembly standing committees are charged with bringing faculty voice and perspective to a broad range of university activities including policy and procedure. Senate Assembly standing committees shall strive to provide advice and consultation to their respective vice presidents in a timely fashion so that faculty perspectives are considered during the decision-making process.

Communications Advisory Committee (CAC)

Advisory to: Richie C. Hunter, Vice President for Communications

Committee Chair: Henry Seeger, Lecturer III, Communication & Media

SPECIFIC CHARGE 2024 – 2025

The Communications Advisory Committee will continue to advise the Vice President for Communications on issues as they arise, ensuring strategic and effective communication that aligns with the university community's values, beliefs, and goals. The committee will also work to elevate the faculty's voice and improve communication between faculty, university leadership, and external stakeholders. Specific goals include:

1. Assess, refine, and expand the committee's identity and mission.
2. Assess and improve faculty communication with leadership, media, and external stakeholders.
3. Represent faculty interests on communication issues to the university leadership.
4. Address emergent communication issues as deemed appropriate.
